

Patent work to foreign citizens in the Russian Federation

Free consultation Call Phone in Saint-Petersburg 8 812 98-332-98 WhatsApp +7 931 307-06-26 Work with all regions of Russia 29.08.2014 Immigration attorney lawyer reviews In order for a foreign citizen to legally work necessary to issue a work permit or a work patent. Registration of patent is compulsory for all migrants arriving in Russia from visa-free countries. Our lawyers provide assistance in obtaining and renewing patents. We are ready to offer You a patent for the best conditions If You need assistance in a legal patent in St. Petersburg, contact our law office. You will need to provide Other documents we will help You prepare including We will also help You The approximate cost of a patent under the key is from 15 to 25 thousand rubles. The final cost is the sum of actual costs associated with the passage of written testing if required and receipt of medical documents. Also, the cost of a patent we have included the issue of the policy LCA and notarial translation of documents. The final price of a patent is fixed and does not change in the process. The exact cost of a patent for work please call The period of preparation of full set of documents and its filing will be required will not exceed 7-10 working days. Consideration of the application and issuance of a patent is carried out after 10 working days the patent You get personally from the hands of the inspectors of the migration service. Our work does not end there. After obtaining a patent, we will advise You on how to make payments with detailed instructions on legal security and, if necessary, assist You in getting of temporary residence permit and citizenship. Next, we describe how to obtain a patent for work to foreign nationals. Later in the article we discuss in more detail the issues associated with obtaining a labor patent. See also the patent. The extension of the patent. Violation of rules of payment of fixed fees. The consequences of late payment of the patent. The labour activity of foreign citizens are covered in the Law on legal status of foreign citizens. In accordance with this law, in order for a foreign visitor to work legally on the territory of Russia it is necessary to obtain the migration on a document giving him such right to work the patent. A work permit is a document which is issued to citizens entering the Russian Federation on the basis of the employment visa. Prepares work permit, the company has the right to attract foreign citizens. Unlike work permits work the patent is issued to citizens having the right

Link to article: Patent work to foreign citizens in the Russian Federation