

Topical indexes of electronic resources

Electronic database with restricted access some of the information in them is freely available The Federal service for intellectual property is the legal successor of the Federal service for intellectual property patents and trademarks as well as the legal successor of the Ministry of justice of the Russian Federation in the part concerning the legal protection of state interests in the process of economic and civil circulation of research results, developmental and technological works of military, special and dual purpose, including for obligations arising from the enforcement of judgments. The site provides the following resources of the State patent collection - over 100 million documents and include domestic and foreign patent documentation. Official publication of Information resources - public registries electronic newsletters of the international classification Information search system according to the inventions, abstracts of patent documents in Russian and English languages, promising inventions, utility models and trademarks well-known trademarks, appellations of origin, international trademarks with the indication of Russia's industrial designs classifications and documents of past papers. Some of the information is freely available from any computer on the Internet Login and password for full access to the database can be obtained from your hall administrator. The address of a resource <http://www1.fips.ru> Electronic database with free access from any computer The Bank patentovannaja purpose of the promotion of new inventions and technologies of the Russian inventors. The main purpose of information portal of the Bank of patents to make information about the new Russian inventions and technology available to the General public and potential investors to help inventors to find partners to implement their inventions and technologies in production. Information portal of the Bank of patents enables inventors free to post in the open directory site a patent for his invention, utility model or patent application and to access your page on the website with opportunity for feedback with potential investors to investors to see free with full information about patents and to communicate in a mode on-line with the author interested in his invention, the site visitors to become acquainted with Russian inventions and technologies in their area of interest. Not having analogues in the Russian Internet our website is a directory of more than 200,000 patent documents open access to information about patented inventions and

Link to article: Topical indexes of electronic resources